Dear Sir:

STAT
STAT This letter is written in appreciation of the exceptional assistance provided us by [] a member of your Agency.

STAT [] was the key individual we relied upon to develop a favorable settlement of the Appeal of Ampex, Inc. (ASBCA 21105 & 21106), a complex claim on a defaulted computer hardware/software contract. Although he was not assigned to assist on the contract until very late in performance, he assimilated and retained a significant amount of detailed facts that were essential to our legal position and our negotiation approach.

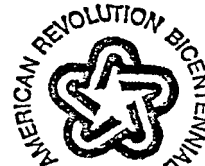

[] assisted both in case preparation and direct negotiations. His exceptional recall, and his outstanding competence in computer technology, provided the necessary basis needed to permit negotiation from a position of apparent strength, when the legal and factual circumstances were actually something less than solid. During negotiations, his ability to clearly and forcibly state a technical position, coupled with the obvious courage of his convictions, permitted our trial attorney to gain some unanticipated advantages and resulted in a final resolution more favorable than expected.

His dedication to his profession and his total cooperation with our office are noteworthy aspects of his job performance, which mandate recognition by this letter of appreciation. I request you place a copy of this letter in his Personnel File.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Dudzik, Jr.
